

COMING OUT AT THE WORKPLACE

COMING OUT AT THE WORKPLACE

SEMINAR

For homosexual, bisexual, inter*, trans*, non-binary and queer employees
in companies

April 21 – 23 2023 online

CONTENT

For many employers it is no longer a problem - officially. However, depending on the environment, corporate culture, personal attitude of colleagues and boss, it can become a challenge: The open appearance as homosexual or bisexual, inter*, trans*, non-binary or queer person at work. On the other hand, concealing and hiding costs energy, which is then lacking in other places. So, out of the closet? Maybe it has already happened? On purpose, by mistake, outed by colleagues? And now? How to deal with it?

MANY QUESTIONS COME YOUR WAY

In this seminar, you can exchange ideas with people who are in a similar situation. Reflect together about difficulties but also opportunities that coming out in the workplace brings. What strategies do you find for difficult situations? Which behaviors will help you in the long run? Get to know your own coming out biography in a protected space. How does your sexual orientation or gender identity reconcile with your professional role? Find out together with us, which path suits you personally.

TARGET GROUP

Lesbian, gay, bisexual, inter*, trans*, non-binary and queer employees who would like to find a clear way of dealing with their own sexual orientation or gender identity in the workplace.
